

Dr. Yasuda voted AAP president-elect

October 16, 2017

Article type: Voters' Guide

Kyle Yasuda, M.D., FAAP, of Seattle, has been voted the AAP president-elect. He ran against Michael A. Weiss, D.O., FAAP, of Coto de Caza, Calif.

Dr. Yasuda will take over as president on Jan. 1, 2019, following Colleen A. Kraft, M.D., FAAP, of Cincinnati, who will serve as president in 2018. To read about Dr. Yasuda's background, visit <http://www.aapublications.org/news/2017/06/02/Yasuda060217>.

Results for additional AAP national offices, which take effect Jan. 1, 2018, are below. For complete coverage, see the December issue of AAP News.

District II – District Chairperson

Warren M. Seigel, M.D., M.B.A., FSAHM, FAAP (re-elected)

District III – District Vice Chairperson

John "Jay" Ludwicki, M.D., FAAP

District III – National Nominating Committee Representative

Danielle G. Dooley, M.D., M.Phil, FAAP

District V – District Chairperson

Richard H. Tuck, M.D., FAAP (re-elected)

District VI – National Nominating Committee Representative

Barbara W. Bayldon, M.D., FAAP

District VIII – District Chairperson

Martha C. Middlemist, M.D., FAAP

District VIII – District Vice Chairperson

Gregory S. Blaschke, M.D., MPH, FAAP

District VIII – National Nominating Committee Representative

Melissa E. Mason, M.D., FAAP

District X – District Chairperson

Lisa A. Cosgrove, M.D., FAAP

District X – District Vice Chairperson

Mobeen H. Rathore, M.D., FAAP

District X – National Nominating Committee Representative

Evelyn D. Johnson, M.D., FAAP

Copyright © 2017 American Academy of Pediatrics