Supplemental Information

Discharge Criteria

Bronchiolitis Checklist
- Oxygen saturations ≥90% x 12 hours on room air
- Adequate feeds x 2 with the use of no more than bulb suction
- Needing bulb suction no more often than every 4 hours
- No evidence of respiratory distress and RR < 50 x 12 hours
- Prescription written, follow-up appointment, and transportation arranged

Pneumonia
- No oxygen requirement x 8 hours
- No respiratory distress
- Fever curve improving or afebrile
- Tolerating oral antibiotics
- Taking adequate oral intake
- Prescription written, follow-up appointment, and transportation arranged

Croup
- No stridor or respiratory distress at rest
- No oxygen requirement x 8 hours
- No racemic epinephrine x 6 hours
- Taking adequate PO intake
- Prescription written, follow-up appointment, and transportation arranged

Gastroenteritis
- Tolerating adequate oral intake (greater than output)
- Clinically appears well hydrated
- Improvement in vomiting and/or diarrhea
- Prescription written, follow-up appointment, and transportation arranged

Asthma Checklist
- Oxygen saturations ≥90% x 12 hours on room air
- No evidence of respiratory distress
- Q4 albuterol x 2
- Asthma action plan completed and reviewed with patient and/or family
- Discharge planning in place (prescriptions, transportation, follow-up plan)

Hyperbilirubinemia
- Serum bilirubin less than light level on AAP curve
- Feeding 8 to 12 times per day if breastfeeding, taking at least 1 oz every 2 to 3 hours if bottle-feeding
- Adequate UOP and stooling
- Prescription written, follow-up appointment, and transportation arranged

Constipation
- Effluent clear or minimal flecks
- Abdominal pain improved
- Tolerating adequate oral intake
- Prescription written, follow-up appointment, and transportation arranged

Skin and/or Soft Tissue Infection (Excluding Periorbital)
- Afebrile or down-trending fever curve
- Tolerating oral antibiotics
- Pain well tolerated
- Prescription written, follow-up appointment, and transportation arranged
- Plan in place to follow-up cultures and D test*

First Febrile UTI
- Afebrile for at least 12 hours
- Tolerating oral antibiotics
- 1 urine culture sensitivities
- Feeding well
- Prescription written, follow-up appointment, and transportation arranged

---

*If discharged on clindamycin, order D test when methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus aureus-positive.