Pediatrics in Review® Print Issue Editorial Board Disclosures

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Policy on Disclosure of Financial Relationships and Resolution of Conflicts of Interest for AAP CME Activities is designed to ensure quality, objective, balanced, and scientifically rigorous AAP CME activities by identifying and resolving all potential conflicts of interest before the confirmation of service of those in a position to influence and/or control CME content. All individuals in a position to influence and/or control the content of AAP CME activities are required to disclose to the AAP and subsequently to learners that the individual either has no relevant financial relationships or any financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in CME activities. Commercial interest is defined as any entity producing, marketing, reselling or distributing health-care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients.

Each of the editorial board members, reviewers, question writers, PREP Coordinating Committee members and staff has disclosed, if applicable, that the CME content he/she edits/writes/reviews may include discussion/reference to generic pharmaceuticals, off-label pharmaceutical use, investigational therapies, brand names, and manufacturers. None of the editors, board members, reviewers, question writers, PREP Coordinating Committee members, or staff has any relevant financial relationships to disclose, unless noted below. The AAP has taken steps to resolve any potential conflicts of interest.

Disclosures

- Nupur Gupta, MD, MPH, disclosed she has a financial relationship with Springer US as co-editor for MassGeneral Hospital for Children Handbook of Pediatric Global Health.
- Michael Macknin, MD, FAAP, disclosed that: he and his wife each receive a free cruise for his seven one-hour talks annually on general pediatric subjects for University at Sea; he receives a grant from the Wendel Family Foundation to fund a randomized study comparing various diets, and one member of the Wendel Family produced the film "Forks Over Knives," which describes the virtues of a vegan diet.
- Janet Serwint, MD, FAAP, disclosed she has a clinical research grant from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention for quality improvement for HPV vaccines.
- Andrew Sirotnak, MD, disclosed that he serves as an expert witness in cases of suspected child abuse.
- Miriam Weinstein, MD, has disclosed she receives research funding (through her hospital's foundation) from LaRoche-Posay.

The journal extends special thanks to the following question writers and ancillary reviewers who contributed to this issue:

–Amita Adhikari, MD

–Philip Giampietro, MD

–Kathy Weise, MD

–H. Stephen Williams, MD

–Courtney Wusthoff, MD

Pediatrics in Review offers 36 CME articles per year. A maximum of one AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ is earned after achieving a 60% score on each designated quiz.

2017 Pediatrics in Review is approved for a total of 30 Maintenance of Certification (MOC) Part 2 credits by the American Board of Pediatrics through the AAP MOC Portfolio Program.

CME STATEMENTS:

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The AAP designates this journal-based CME activity for a maximum of 1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

This activity is acceptable for a maximum of 1.00 AAP credit. These credits can be applied toward the AAP CME/CPD* Award available to Fellows and Candidate Members of the AAP.

The American Academy of Physician Assistants accepts certificates of participation for educational activities certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ from organizations accredited by ACCME. Physician assistants may receive a maximum of 1.00 hour of Category 1 credit for completing this program.

This program is accredited for 1.00 NAPNAP CE contact hour; pharmacology (Rx) and psychopharmacology contact hours to be determined per the National Association of Pediatric Nurse Practitioners (NAPNAP) Continuing Education Guidelines.

It has been established that each CME activity will take the learner approximately 1 hour to complete.

*Continuing Professional Development

How to complete this activity:

Pediatrics in Review can be accessed and reviewed in print or online at <http://pedsinreview.aappublications.org>. Learners can claim credit monthly online upon completion of each CME article. The deadline for completing this activity is December 31, 2019. Credit will be recorded in the year in which it is submitted. It is estimated that it will take approximately 1 hour to complete each CME article. This activity is not considered to have been completed until the learner documents participation in that activity to the provider via online submission of answers. Course evaluations are online.
